Four Local Members Elected to Electric Cooperative Board

LUBBOCK, TX – Four local members were elected to serve on the South Plains Electric Cooperative Board of Directors at the Annual Meeting of Membership on Tuesday, August 18, 2026, at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center.

Lloyd Arthur of Ralls represents District 4. Arthur has served on the South Plains Electric Board since 2020. David Gossett of Slaton represents District 6. Gossett served on the South Plains Electric Cooperative Board since 2015. Jamie McNeill of Crosby County represents District 9. McNeill has served on the South Plains Electric Board since 2023. Larry Browning of Childress represents District 11. Browning has served on the South Plains Electric Board since 2009.

Like other electric cooperatives, South Plains Electric Cooperative is guided by an elected board of directors that represents its members when making important decisions. Being a member of the Co-op's board is an important and highly responsible position in the community, and directors invest a considerable amount of time and energy in overseeing the Cooperative business.
