

SOUTH PLAINS ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE

Operation Round Up Teacher Mini-Grants

Concern for Community is one of the Seven Cooperative Principles guiding South Plains Electric Cooperative. Giving back to our community gives our Cooperative the opportunity to support community efforts that enhance the quality of life for members and their families. Operation Round Up helps provide funding for community members in need.

Operation Round Up is funded by Cooperative members rounding their bill up to the nearest dollar.

For more information about the program, please visit SPEC.coop/operationroundup.

Amber Maddox, a teacher at Frenship ISD, used her grant to transform her classroom to create a fun and interactive learning environment for her students.

Belinda Boren, a teacher at Frenship ISD, used her grant to purchase the premium version of "We Will Write," an online writing game her students greatly enjoy.

Sally Manney, a teacher at Quanah ISD, used her grant to provide her students with a hands-on experience planting and maintaining vegetable gardens.

Linda Blount, a teacher at Abernathy ISD, used her grant to recognize and reward the highest-achieving 6th and 7th grade students who demonstrated academic progress.

Shelby Gaddis, a teacher at Roosevelt ISD, used her grant to purchase three sets of highly engaging books to help her special education students learn.

Daisha Hansard, a teacher at Shallowater ISD, used her grant to purchase the “I Survived” series for her students to read, before writing their own “I Survived Fifth Grade” narratives.

Shannon Jones, a teacher at Lubbock-Cooper ISD, used her grant to purchase stylus pencils for her students to use and enjoy when working on their digital journals.

Leticia Garcia, a teacher at Childress ISD, used her grant to create a fun learning project to help her 7th graders memorize the main functions of human systems.

Lindsey Jones, a teacher at Lubbock-Cooper ISD, used her grant to provide her students with hands-on experience being resource managers for the day and creating their own water filters.

Kinley Saulters, a teacher at Roosevelt ISD, used her grant to revamp her class reset area, which offers her students a safe place to go during difficult or emotional moments.